Margaret Evans is internationally known for her pastel painting, teaching & writing.

She also paints in oils & acrylics, watercolour for bold colourful sketching diaries of her travels which inspire her subject matter for gallery paintings, & gouache to work with her wet techniques in pastels, resulting in dynamic textures which convey her subjects with drama & atmosphere. She is a graduate of Glasgow School of Art, teaching graduate from University of London, & proud member of the Pastel Society of America (PSA)

Margaret also varies her subject material to cover portraits, figurative, floral as well as landscape, and enjoys indulging in Golf Art through her website

www.thegolfartgallery.co.uk

Margaret & husband Malcolm also offer an Art Management Service organising & running painting holidays internationally, with specialist art workshops in Scotland, Europe & USA, for artists with their own groups and/or art societies, as well as inviting internationally renowned artists to teach here, as well as Margaret's own workshops as tutor. Art groups, tutors & societies can get in touch for these services on info@shinafoot.co.uk and have their own personalised painting holiday put together.
